ANTI-DISCRIMINATION & SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

It is the policy of PRET AUSTRALIA to ensure that the Anti-Discrimination Acts of the State Government and Discrimination Acts of the Federal Government are adhered to. These acts include, but are not limited to, the Federal Government Racial Discrimination, Human Rights and Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and Sex Discrimination Acts. Also included is the Queensland Government Anti-Discrimination Act, which deals with all the foregoing Federal Acts.

Purpose:

PRET Australia is committed to providing a safe and inclusive learning and working environment free from discrimination, harassment and sexual misconduct. This policy outlines our commitment to preventing and addressing discrimination and sexual harassment within our organization.

Scope:

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, students, volunteers, clients and visitors at PRET Australia. It covers all aspects of RTO operations, including training delivery, assessment, administration and interactions among staff and stakeholders.

Principles:

- Equality and Respect: We promote equality and respect for all individuals regardless of race, ethnicity, color, nationality, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, disability or any other protected characteristic under applicable laws.
- Zero Tolerance: PRET Australia has zero tolerance for discrimination, harassment and sexual misconduct in any form.
- Compliance: We comply with all relevant anti-discrimination and equal opportunity laws and regulations

Definitions:

- Discrimination: Any unfavorable treatment or adverse action based on a person's protected characteristic, which includes but is not limited to race, gender, disability, sexual orientation, religion, age or nationality.
- Harassment: Unwelcome conduct, whether verbal, physical, or visual that creates an intimidating, offensive, or hostile environment, or interferes with an individual's performance or learning opportunities.
- Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that creates an intimidating, offensive or hostile environment.

Responsibilities:

- Management: Management is responsible for fostering a culture of respect, ensuring compliance with this policy, and promptly addressing any concerns or complaints.
- Employees and Stakeholders: All employees, students, contractors and stakeholders are responsible for treating others with dignity and respect, refraining from discrimination or harassment, and reporting any observed or experienced incidents promptly.

- Complaint handlers: Designated personnel are responsible for receiving and handling complaints in a confidential and sensitive manner, ensuring a fair investigation and resolution process.

Reporting Procedure:

- Any person who experiences or witnesses discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct should report it immediately to their supervisor, designated complaint handler, trainer, or HR department.
- Reports will be investigated promptly and impartially. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent possible, and retaliation against individuals reporting in good faith will not be tolerated.

Consequences:

- Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or training enrolment, depending on the severity and nature of the offense.
- Legal actions may be pursued where appropriate and in accordance with the law.

What is Discrimination?

Discrimination occurs when someone is treated unfavourably because of one of their personal characteristics.

Discrimination may involve:

- Offensive “jokes” or comments about another worker’s racial or ethnic background, sex, sexual preference, age, disability or physical appearance.
- Display of pictures or posters that are offensive or derogatory.
- Expressive negative stereotypes of particular groups, e.g., “married women shouldn’t be working”.
- Judging someone on his or her political or religious beliefs rather than their work performance.
- Using stereotypes or assumptions to guide decision making about a person’s career.
- Undermining a person’s authority or work performance due to dislikes of one or more of their personal characteristics.

What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment is any form of sexual attention that is unwelcome. It may be unwelcome touching or other physical contact, remarks with sexual connotations, smutty jokes, requests for sexual favours, leering or the display of offensive material.

Sexual harassment has nothing to do with mutual attractions. Such friendships are a private matter.

Sexual harassment can be a single incident; it depends on the circumstances. Obviously, some actions or remarks are so offensive that they constitute sexual harassment in themselves, even if they are not repeated.

Other single incidents, such as an unwanted invitation out or compliment may not constitute harassment if they are not repeated.

The onus is not on the person being harassed to say he or she finds the conduct objectionable. Many people find it difficult to speak up. All students are responsible for their own behaviour. If you think the behaviour may offend, then do not do it.

If another person's behaviour towards you is sexual in nature and makes you feel frightened, offended, angry or humiliated, then you are being harassed. Sexual harassment can happen to anyone, regardless of his or her sex or age.

Remember: Sexual harassment does not apply to normal friendships or relationships based on mutual attraction. The attention must be unwarranted for it to be harassment.

PRET AUSTRALIA will not tolerate discrimination or harassment. PRET AUSTRALIA will confidentially investigate each complaint of discrimination or harassment received. Any person who is proven to have discriminated or harassed another student of PRET AUSTRALIA may face disciplinary measures. Likewise, disciplinary action may be taken against any person who victimizes a person involved in making a complaint.

What to do if you are discriminated against or sexually harassed

You have the right to feel safe and to have full opportunity to achieve your potential in your studies. Do not let harassment interfere with your life. If you are being harassed, seek help immediately.

There are several options. Choose the course of action you feel most comfortable with. Do not ignore discrimination or sexual harassment, thinking it will go away - often discrimination just gets worse and silence may give the impression that discrimination or sexual harassment is acceptable.

You may:

- Tell the person they are making you uncomfortable and ask them to stop.
- Make a complaint to a staff member of PRET AUSTRALIA.

Or

- Make a complaint under Anti-Discrimination Legislation to the Anti-Discrimination Commission Queensland (ADCQ):

The Anti-Discrimination Commission can help to resolve complaints.

It does not have the power to decide if unlawful discrimination has occurred, and it does not take sides.

Discrimination related complaints

A complaint can be made under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 about:

- discrimination
- sexual harassment

If you are unsure whether you can make a complaint to the Commission, contact the free Queensland-wide information and enquiry Service. We can arrange an interpreter if required.

PRET Australia seeks to prevent complaints by ensuring high levels of satisfaction with its training and assessment, its performance as an RTO and with its public image. If a complaint should arise, all staff are expected to be fair, courteous and helpful in all dealings with the person making the complaint or lodging the appeal, and to assist or refer where they can.

Where a complaint or appeal cannot be resolved through discussion and conciliation, PRET Australia acknowledges the need for an appropriate external and independent person/party to mediate. The parties involved will be given the opportunity to formally present their case in an independent forum.

Confidentiality will be maintained throughout the process of making and resolving complaints/appeals. PRET Australia seeks to protect the rights and privacy of all involved, and to facilitate the return to a comfortable and productive learning environment.

A copy of this Policy is available to the public, all stakeholders, students and staff via the PRET Australia's website and is available in the Student Handbook. Information and contact details of external authorities who may be approached, is also included.

The following procedure explains how we aim to ensure any complaint or appeal is dealt with in a fair and timely manner.

PROCEDURE

Should a person have a complaint or appeal, the following steps are to be followed:

1. Discuss the issue directly with those involved to try and resolve it verbally.
2. If no resolution is reached, discuss the issue with Training Co-ordinator to see if it can be resolved.
3. If this resolves the situation, the outcomes will be put in writing and signed by both parties. One of the two copies of the outcome will be placed on file with the Training Co-ordinator and securely stored.
4. If there is still no resolution, the person should put the following information relating to the complaint or appeal in writing to the PRET Australia Training Manager. This written notification can be made using the Complaints and Appeals Form or by email, letter or over the phone (with a dictation made by the RTO representative), and must include:
 - A description of the complaint or appeal
 - A statement about whether the person wishes to formally present their case
 - Information about any prior steps taken to deal with the complaint or appeal

- What they would like to happen to fix the problem and prevent it from happening again
5. A written acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint/appeal will be forwarded to the complainant within five working days.
 6. The Training Manager will either deal with the issue personally, or arrange for it to be dealt with by a management representative. This process must commence within two working days from the time the Training Manager receives the written notification and a response/resolution must be presented within 14 working days.
 7. The Training Manager will:
 - Undertake a preliminary enquiry to determine nature of the complaint/appeal
 - Inform other relevant parties (if necessary)
 - Provide all parties an opportunity to present their case (with a support person and/or parent/guardian if a student is under 18 years of age)
 - Discuss with the parties any resolution and any arrangements required by the RTO
 - Record the outcome of discussion on Complaints and Appeals Form
 - Provide the outcome in writing to the person (and other parties if relevant)
 8. Should the issue still not be resolved to the person's satisfaction, PRET Australia will make arrangements for an independent party to resolve the issue and outline any costs that may be involved with this to happen, to the person. The person will be given the opportunity to formally present their case. The time frame for this process may vary but should take no longer than 14 working days.
 9. All parties involved will receive a written statement of the outcomes, including reasons for the decision within the 14-working day period. If the process is taking longer than 60 days from the complaint or appeal being received, the person will be notified in writing of the reason for the delay, and kept informed of all progress.
 10. If the person is still not happy with outcomes from the independent process, they may take their complaint to the VET Regulator - the Australian Skills Quality Authority.
 - Information about the process can be found at: <https://www.asqa.gov.au/students/complaints>
 - or at the National Complaints Hotline at <https://www.dewr.gov.au/national-training-complaints-hotline>
 11. From any substantiated complaints and appeals, the causes will be reviewed as part of the RTO's continuous improvement processes, and appropriate corrective action will be taken to prevent or reduce the likelihood of reoccurrence. Actions will be recorded in the Improvement Request Log
 12. Any complaint that is related to illegal activity, such as theft, assault etc., will be immediately referred to the appropriate authority.
 13. All documentation relating to complaints or appeals will be stored securely as per the Records Management Procedure.
 14. The PRET Australia Training Manager will be personally responsible for the implementation and maintenance of the policy.

EXTERNAL CONSULTANT APPEALS

- A mutual agreement is to be reached between PRET AUSTRALIA and the relevant participant regarding the external consultant to be engaged for use in the external appeal process. Consultants engaged to conduct the appeal process are to hold recognised qualifications that meet the training and knowledge requirements for the relevant course.
- Where participants wish to use an external consultant who is not approved by PRET AUSTRALIA they are responsible for payment of all costs associated with the use of the external consultant in the appeal process.

APPEAL DECISIONS

- All current assessment activities related to the appellant will be suspended immediately upon receipt of the appeal, and will remain suspended until a final decision is reached on the appeal.
- During the appeal process, no further assessments will be conducted, and any ongoing assessment activities will be paused until a final decision is made.
- All decisions will be immediately communicated to participants and subject to the provisions of the Judicial Review Act 1991, the decision of an external consultant conducting an appeal will be final.

RECORDS MANAGEMENT

This policy ensures systems are in place for recording personal details of course/program participants, enrolments, recording evidence of assessment, competencies achieved and results of assessment. It also ensures continuous improvement systems are in place to guarantee the ongoing monitoring and review of all aspects of business operation.

Record Maintenance

PRET AUSTRALIA is committed to keeping accurate and confidential records in relation to our clients and the activities conducted on their behalf. All records are maintained through a combination of manual and AVETMISS compliant computer-based systems designed to ensure we could provide detailed and timely information to our clients. Records of a student who relate to a government funded arrangement will display the contract registration number and student number supplied by the funding authority.

PRET AUSTRALIA has made the necessary changes to ensure all current student records will contain the allocated unique student identifier (USI). Statements of Attainment and Qualifications cannot be issued without a USI for courses completed after the 1st January 2015. PRET AUSTRALIA submits Avetmiss reports to Department of Education and Training Queensland on a monthly basis resulting in student outcomes being updated through the USI system.

Only authorised personnel at PRET AUSTRALIA can access client records.

Personal Details and Privacy Policy

Student details including address, email and phone numbers are entered into the RTO database and remain confidential. Any change of address must be given to PRET AUSTRALIA on a change of address form.

It is the student's responsibility to ensure that personal details are current and correct. Students are informed of the process to gain access to their records. A student request for permission to access individual records must be in writing.

PRET AUSTRALIA in its operations and provisions complies in all ways with the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000. This prevents PRET AUSTRALIA from providing any student details to any other person other than the student without the express permission of the individual concerned.

Assessment Records

Assessment records are a permanent account of achievement of performance and all records relating to courses conducted by PRET AUSTRALIA are maintained in accordance with the VET Quality Framework - Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations 2015.

Records of student's participation and progress through their training program are systematically collected, recorded and stored. PRET AUSTRALIA uses both paper based and AVETMISS compliant record keeping systems for recording evidence. In face to face sessions, instructors complete all required program assessment documents on candidates (e.g. trainee assessment books, evidence record forms) as completed by the candidate throughout their study program. Electronic records are updated as soon as practical after completion of assessment to ensure up to date information is available to participants and authorised clients on request.

Assessment results are retained by PRET AUSTRALIA for 30 years. Individual assessment records are retained;

- until the period for appeal against assessment has lapsed,
- or for a period of six months from the date on which the judgment of competence for the student was made
- or for the duration of the student's enrolment

whichever is the longest period of time in accordance with the National VET Regulator (ASQA) general direction in regards to the retention period of completed student assessment. Participant results will only be released for legal, educational requirements to the student or their authorized representative.

For those holding a real estate agent licence, employment opportunities are available in all sectors of the real estate industry including residential, commercial, industrial, and business broking. Holders of a real estate agent licence can establish their own agency, manage a real estate agency or choose to work for a licensed real estate agent.

Terms of employment may differ to those of a registered salesperson as the holder of a real estate agent licence can elect to work on a commission only basis rather than receiving a weekly wage that may be offset against future commissions. A licensed real estate agent can also work as a contractor to a real estate agency and as such invoices the agency for commissions due.

If a licensed real estate agent chooses to establish their own business, they can perform the full range duties involved in the selling and management of real estate and can employ other appropriately licensed and registered persons to assist in performing those functions
